PROFILE: ARCHITECT OF THE TTLG UNIVERSE

Independent artist, musician, and creative director Andy Arno builds immersive cinematic worlds from Barcelona. As the sole architect of the TTLG universe, she asserts full control over musical composition, direction, screenplay, and visual aesthetics. Her work—defined as "Intellectual Punk"—blends Dark-Pop textures with a direct challenge to the psychological warfare of the modern era, urging her audience to awaken from systemic sedation.

FEATURED WORK: WONDERLAND (VOL.2: HERE COMES THE DARK)

"Wonderland" is a subtle protest against systemic sedation. This track challenges psychological warfare and the "distraction fetish" of the first world.

Written, directed, and color-graded by Andy Arno
